

SUMMER FLAMENCO DANCE CLASSES 2023!

with

Danica Sena

Internationally-acclaimed Master flamenco and Spanish dance teacher/choreographer/performer, Danica Sena, has created and performed over 200 original works for television, independent film and stage in Spain (where she resided for a decade), Japan, Mexico, Czech Republic, Hawaii and all states of the continental U.S. Her intrinsic cultural understanding of the art she imparts combined with a unique methodology, musicality and passion for teaching has made her one of the most-solicited in her field. In 2012 she received the great honor of guest teaching for one month in Madrid, Valencia and Castellon, Spain. Ms. Sena has been a proud faculty member of ODC School in San Francisco since 2004 and acts regularly as adjunct faculty at OBT, Dominican University and USF. Danica Sena was also recently awarded the 2014 San Francisco Bay Area Dancers' Choice Award.

This August, Tania Tandias Flamenco & Spanish Dance is offering a three-week flamenco dance course with guest instructor, Danica Sena, culminating in a fun summer student showcase!

August 1-17, 2023

Classes:

Level 1: Tues. & Thur., 6:00– 7:15 pm, Aug. 1-17. Beginners welcome!

Level 2: Tues. & Thur., 7:15– 8:30 pm, Aug. 1-17. Consent of instructor.

Location: Madison Youth Arts Center, Madison, 1055 E. Mifflin Street

Fee: $150 for 1 class level.
$275 for 2 class levels.

*Classes can be prorated for summer plans.

*$10 early-bird discount if you register and pay by July 17th.

To register, contact Tania: tania.tandias@gmail.com or (608) 250-0369
www.flamencodance.net*